Key Note Speaker

Maria Davis,
Renowned HIV/AIDS Activist

In 1995 Maria's life took a turn - she contracted the HIV virus unknowingly from her soon-to-be-husband. While in the hospital near death her spiritual calling was revealed to her. Maria knew that she had to devote her life -to educating women, men and children about AIDS.

Maria does not consider herself a victim, but an activist who speaks to thousands of people every year about HIV/AIDS awareness. She puts her convictions and her passion for life into action. In addition to raising money for several AIDS organizations and volunteering at organizations within her community, Maria is the media spokesperson for several HIV/AIDS campaigns including BET's Rap it Up Community Service outreach and World AIDS Day.

Maria has been honored with numerous awards for the many contributions she has made to the AIDS community, including the National Black Commission on AIDS Choose Life Award. Maria has turned great personal adversity into an opportunity to teach and to share an important message with the world. She challenges everyone she meets to do the same.

Come hear Maria's Call to Action!
